

Editing Services: Big picture and overall structure; framing narrative, technical content and style for the audience; focus on consistency and clarity in meeting authors needs; support to improve publishing success

Developmental editing: Support with conceiving topic, planning structure and outline; support with undertaking a literature review to inform the content; substantive revisions and restructuring; content recommendations; guidance for developing publishable peer review paper

Technical editing: Review for accuracy and completeness of the technical information; appropriateness of the writing style; highlight inconsistencies – in addition to copy editing

Copy editing: Review for coherency, consistency, clarity and correctness; align with house-style (grammar, tone, spelling, readability – line by line); Proofreading as a final check

Editing with authors: Improving manuscript structure, grammar, style, flow and clarity of the content for submission; support in addressing peer review comment

Capacity building: Guide individuals or groups through the process of producing a publishable journal article; proposal and ethics review preparation

Services
overall

Report Manuscript

Content Style Paragraphs Words

All services and training for individuals and groups